Reader, I peddled ever a thousand bettles of this in the visinity of Bosson. I know the effects of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so zure will this cure humor. I never sold a bettle of it but that sold another, after a tried it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising—first that it grews in our pasturer, in some places quite plentful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846; second, that it should cure all kinds of humor. In order to give some idea of the sudden mas and great popularity of the discovery, I will make, that in April 1823, I peddied it, and sold about his bowles per day. In April, 1824, I sold ever necessary; eat the beet you can get, and enough of it, including the continuitions, take sufficient to operate on the bowlet wire a fay. Aft.
